

Travel Study Program Scholarship Fund

The UCLA Department of Spanish and Portuguese is pleased to support undergraduate students interested in immersive cultural and educational experiences abroad with UCLA faculty. We will be providing a limited number of scholarships for students to study in Barcelona (Spain), Granada (Spain), Salvador, Bahia (Brazil), and Mérida (México) during Summer 2017. Award amounts will range from $500-$1000. This scholarship is designed for UCLA students who have interest in exploring and understanding new cultures.

Applicants must comply with the following criteria:

- Provide proof of registration in a UCLA Travel Study Program directed by the Department of Spanish and Portuguese
- Have a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA
- Submit a 250-word (1 page) statement of purpose

Application Deadline

March 6th, 2017

Submit completed application to the Undergraduate Advisor, in Rolfe 5314 or via email at dbarragan@humnet.ucla.edu

Travel Study Program Scholarship Application

This form is for undergraduate student use in applying for Travel Study Program scholarships offered by the Department of Spanish & Portuguese. Students who have formally applied to the Travel Study Program may apply for these awards.

STUDENT NAME: _____

STUDENT ID NUMBER: _____

EMAIL ADDRESS: _____

MAJOR: _____

MINOR: _____

Please select the program in which you are participating.

- SALVADOR DA BAHIA, BRAZIL
- MERIDA, MEXICO
- BARCELONA, SPAIN
- BARCELONA/GRANADA/MADRID, SPAIN

Interest in travel. On a separate sheet and within a maximum of 250 words (1 page), please explain your interest in the travel study program. Specifically, you should identify your interests relating to the language or culture of the destination program and what you hope to gain from it.

Submit completed application to the Undergraduate Advisor in Rolfe 5314 or via email at dbarragan@humnet.ucla.edu