Company Description
Intern Colombia is working in partnership with an NGO whose mission is to provide a social loving and caring environment for children and adolescents and allow them to fully exercise their rights and to be happy. They promote, defend, and protect the rights of children and adolescents who have had their rights threatened or violated by offering an environment of love and respect while their situation is resolved by either being adopted, or reunited with their biological parents. Since 2011, they have provided a protective and caring environment to young victims affected by the armed conflict and who have come out of illegal armed groups throughout the country. Our partner also works with adults to ensure they can become an effective guardian of the rights of the youth in Colombia and can create healthy family environments. They provide skilled care, educational programs, parental support, and adoption services.
