

Example Project Placement Plan

Essential information:

Company	Andeco
Company Country	Japan (Osaka)	Company Website:	http://www.andeco.co.jp/
Virtual or In-person	In-person	Career Field	Green Technology/Computer Science & IT

About the Host Company

Smart City Consulting Company, Andeco is participating in numerous projects in relation to the sustainability of a city and green technology. Andeco is a unique company working within the smart city sector, providing total solutions for various clients. The company is a start-up and will provide the intern a full experience in working in a large-scale project for big cities including Osaka and Kobe.

Core Skills

- Research and analysis
- Design electronic or manual website, marketing materials, posters,
- Finance: reports, data forecasts
- Tech: designing, improving, or contributing to software/hardware
- Presenting: in person, digital, creating
- Meetings: Shadowing, note taking, observing
- Databases: for sales leads, products etc.
- Business Development: networking, emailing, client visits

Internship Title: New Business Development and Startup Company Experience

What are the main projects that Intern is working on?

According to the interest of the internship and the situation of the project at that time, we will decide the development content.

- The learning system using AI which utilized Python of the cross-section image of wood
- Simple POS cash register system for use with cart Android or iOS
- Development of image processing of AI camera
- Development of shop matching system using Django
- Event information site (WEB) based on matching system information
- Machine Learning related project which will identify origin and age of trees
- Business development - If you are interested in planning, you can also participate in actual meetings