

TRAVEL STUDY: Bringing Paris to you!

JUNE 20 - JULY 15, 2021

Weaving lectures and tours, this program presents a two-fold approach to the histories of the kingdom of France in the Middle Ages and the early Modern period. Students will also explore the development of Paris from a small medieval town into metropolis.

Directed by Prof. Hilliard, Clemson University & Prof. Ruiz, UCLA Department of History

Required Courses:

- History 119D (4 units)
Paris & the French Monarch in the Middle Ages & Early Modern Period
- History 191B (4 units)
UG Seminar: Paris from Ancient to Modern

Virtual Study Abroad:

In addition to maintaining the same program courses as planned, your program will include the following virtual experiences:

- Virtual walking tours through Paris
- French cooking demo
- Museum video visits
- Discussions of key sites throughout the city

Program Fees*:

UC - $3,000
Visiting - $3,500

Fees include: Tuition and fees, course instructions, activities.*