

Fundación Mi Sangre

Company Description
Intern Colombia is working in partnership with a non-profit organization that empowers new generations across Colombia to lead in the construction of a culture of peace. They specifically work with communities in Medellín, Cartagena, Cali, Norte de Santander, and Caquetá. By 2019, they had worked with more than 55,000 children &amp; 14,000 teenagers &amp; young adults, who in turn have impacted 475,000 others. Their programs focus on creating innovative solutions with change initiatives on issues related to health and well-being, gender equality, social inclusion, the environment, peace and justice, democracy and citizen participation, cultural heritage, coexistence, and social conflicts. They hope to build a country that respects life in all its forms and that promotes love, fairness, liberty, diversity, community, and shared responsibility.
